Elective Course Descriptions

ETH 603 Social Justice in the Free Church Tradition – Credit 3 hours

This course is an exploration into social justice writings out of the free church tradition. It will begin with Charles Marsh's The Beloved Community as a framework. Students and instructor will then read key sources together from various strands of the tradition and historical periods. Students interested in this course are encouraged to contact the professor before the course begins to give their input on social justice topics, readings, and resources for the course.

THE 629 Dietrich Bonhoeffer: Disciple, Pastor, Resister, Martyr – Credit 3 hours

“Who is Jesus Christ for us today?” This question Dietrich Bonhoeffer posed in a letter in April 1944. In many ways this Christological question defines Bonhoeffer's life and thought. The aim of this course is to consider the life and thought of Dietrich Bonhoeffer in light of his own question. Bonhoeffer's involvement in the Confessing Church movement in the era of Nazi socialism in Germany, his (singular German) voice on the “Jewish question,” and his participation and role in the German resistance will also be taken up. The course will also consider the significance of Bonhoeffer for North America in the 21st century. While attention will be given to all of his writings, the course will especially consider his Ethics and Letters and Papers from Prison.

PAC 617 Pastoral Care and Counseling: Personality Theory & Abnormal Behavior – Credit 3 hours

This course is designed to investigate personality theories and abnormal behavior (DSM IV) as well as selected views of psychology, culture, and biblical/theological foundations. Students will be requested to look at their own beliefs and thoughts in these areas in order to consider applications for pastoral care and counseling. Prerequisite: PAC 601 or PAC 609

SPF 699 Theological Research – Credit 3 hours

An immersion into the informational and formational aspects of theological reading, research, and writing.
