Adjunct Faculty Notes

Elective Course Descriptions

WRL 609 Muslim Christian Relations – Credit 3 hours

An exploration of the ways in which Christian and Muslim relationships have evolved through history. Through patterns of conflict and cooperation, both religions have formed theological frameworks with which Muslims and Christians continue to engage each other to the present. Attention will be given to ways in which scholars and adherents of each tradition are engaged in rethinking the relationship between the two faiths, and the reality that theological perceptions are colored by the particular contexts in which Muslims and Christians interact.

PAC 603 Psychology and Theology of Family: Theory and Techniques – Credit 3 hours

This course is designed to explore the biblical/theological bases, research findings, and clinical issues for marriage and family theory and techniques. Students will consider a variety of foundational areas for marriage and family, examine their own beliefs and practices in those areas, and reflect on multi-cultural approaches to use in assisting others. Prerequisite: PAC 601 or PAC 609

NTS 647 Interpreting Romans – Credit 3 hours

An investigation of Paul's letter to the Romans with emphasis on understanding Paul's argument and exploring the letter's relevance for contemporary Christian theology. Prerequisite: BIB 501

SPF 699 Theological Research — Credit 3 hours

An immersion into the informational and formational aspects of theological reading, research, and writing.

OTS 505 Introduction to Hebrew – Credit 3 hours

An introduction to the basic grammar and vocabulary of biblical Hebrew. The student will be asked to learn frequently used words from the Hebrew Bible. The primary concepts of Hebrew grammar will be introduced during the course of the semester. The aim is to acquire basic skills for the reading of the Old Testament in Hebrew.
