

The Lead Pastor at CrossPoint Church in Ingleside, IL, is the central spiritual leader responsible for preaching, vision casting, and guiding the congregation. The Lead Pastor is responsible for faithfully preaching God's Word, shepherding the congregation, and advancing the church's mission to help people know, obey, and enjoy God. This role centers on leading a healthy transition, strengthening a culture of discipleship, and positioning the church for its next season of impact. Working closely with the Elder Board, the Lead Pastor provides Christ-centered vision, ensures doctrinal integrity, and fosters unity while guiding the church forward with humility and conviction.

The Ingleside area offers a unique blend of small-town community, natural beauty, and close proximity to the bustling Chicago and Milwaukee regions. Centered around the picturesque Chain O'Lakes, the area provides year-round outdoor activities like boating, fishing, hiking, and parks that bring families together. Residents value the strong sense of community and safety, alongside easy access to employment, healthcare, dining, and entertainment options in nearby towns and larger metropolitan areas. Candidates considering this role will find Ingleside an affordable and family-friendly locale with a close-knit feel and connections to broader opportunities for personal and professional growth.

CrossPoint Church envisions a strong community where individuals and families encounter genuine fellowship, deepen their faith in Christ, and are empowered to positively influence their surroundings. Rooted in core values of biblical teaching, authentic relationships, and intentional discipleship, the church cultivates a welcoming environment where spiritual growth, purposeful service, and impactful community engagement flourish. Candidates interested in leading with impact and fostering a community where faith thrives and relationships flourish are invited to explore the Lead Pastor role at CrossPoint Church in Ingleside, Illinois.
