

Are you a visionary and dynamic leader with a passion for guiding and empowering the next generation in their faith journey? Fairmont Park Church in La Porte, Texas, is seeking a Family Minister to coordinate and lead ministry programs for children and youth while emphasizing team leadership, vision alignment, and parental engagement. Located in La Porte, a city with a small-town feel near Galveston Bay, residents enjoy a range of recreational activities from youth sports complexes to beach outings. As a church committed to embodying unity, love, and grace, they aim to create a welcoming and vibrant community that reflects the heart of God and fosters spiritual growth in individuals.

They value creative and engaging ministry approaches rooted in simplicity, grace, and unexpected joy. The Family Minister at Fairmont Park Church will demonstrate strong leadership skills in team building, youth empowerment, and proactive ministry initiatives. Proficiency in utilizing social media platforms and graphic design tools to create visually appealing content for engagement and outreach is crucial in leading the next generation towards spiritual growth and leadership development. Join them in magnetizing the presence of God in engaging worship experiences that draw individuals closer to Him and play a vital role in transforming lives in their city through passion, purpose, and dedication.
