

The Discipleship Pastor at Faith Arlington in Arlington, TN, leads the creation and implementation of a church-wide discipleship strategy, aiming to deepen spiritual relationships and integrate growth pathways across adult ministries. This role involves developing disciple-making processes, aligning ministries, training leaders, evaluating effectiveness, and promoting biblical teaching to nurture spiritual growth, equip leaders, and ensure alignment with the church's mission and vision.

Arlington, Tennessee, known for its strong sense of community and family-friendly living, offers residents a high quality of life with excellent schools and recreational opportunities. With its small-town warmth, convenient proximity to Memphis, and emphasis on safety and thoughtful growth, Arlington embodies a welcoming environment for families to thrive. Residents enjoy a genuine community spirit, top-notch amenities, and a variety of local attractions that create a sense of belonging and security.

Faith Arlington is a vibrant community committed to making disciples who grow in maturity and actively help others do the same. Grounded in values like being Jesus Centered and Gospel Driven, the church seeks to reveal the transformative power of the Gospel through prayer, worship, and a focus on outreach and community impact. The Discipleship Pastor role requires strong leadership skills, a visionary approach to disciple-making, and a commitment to building a culture of discipleship within the church. If you're passionate about equipping individuals to grow deeper in their faith and integrating missional principles into discipleship practices, we invite you to explore this fulfilling opportunity at Faith Arlington.
