

Kulm Baptist Church in Kulm, North Dakota, is in search of a Senior Pastor who embodies strong faith in Christ, moral integrity, keen spiritual discernment, effective leadership capabilities, and adept communication skills. The successful candidate will uphold various responsibilities outlined in the church bylaws, including supporting the mission, overseeing ministries, preaching, leading worship services, administering sacraments, conducting visitations, spearheading prayer and evangelism efforts, managing church operations, fostering denominational ties, community collaboration, and executing tasks directed by the Ministry Board.

Located in the picturesque North Dakota Prairie Pothole region, Kulm offers a welcoming community adorned with serene lakes teeming with diverse fish species. Hunting enthusiasts are drawn to the area for a variety of hunting experiences. The community's warm embrace readily welcomes newcomers in places like local cafes, stores, and the post office, often extending invitations for coffee.

Grounded in a resolute mission, Kulm Baptist Church is driven by a vibrant commitment to worship God wholeheartedly with reverent devotion and gratitude. Their worship serves as a platform to honor God, placing Him at the core of faith and community life. Consider exploring the Senior Pastor role at Kulm Baptist Church, a unique opportunity to lead and serve in a deeply rooted faith community aspiring to worship, outreach, and spiritual growth.
